

If Sinclair Broadcasting is determined to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election, isn't it incumbent upon them to air something pro-Kerry, like "Going Up River," as well?

Equal access is such an important part of our public airwaves. Please assure that neither of these shows will air or both will air at equivalent viewer time periods.

Thank you.